

UTB STUDENTS IMPROVE KNOWLEDGE ON ISLAMIC SECURITIES VIA VISIT TO BIBD SECURITIES

For Immediate Release

Aug 25, 2016 - A total of nine Bachelor of Applied Economics and Finance students and two lecturers from Universiti Teknologi Brunei (UTB) were welcomed at BIBD Securities at its main office in Kiulap as part of their undergraduate study visit.

The special visit was aimed at introducing and educating the Economics and Finance students about the BIBD Securities current products and services in the Islamic securities space. Apart from the opportunity to be introduced to the operations of BIBD Securities, the students were also given a talk on Shariah Compliant Stocks, screening processes, regulatory compliance, roles and implications on the formation of a stock exchange in Brunei Darussalam.

The interactive talk was handled by Jeffri Ahmad Said, Assistant General Manager, also present during the sharing session was Haji Minorhadi bin Haji Mirhassan, the Managing Director of BIBD Securities. The talk gave the students opportunity to have a dialogue with officers from BIBD Securities and learn important concepts and development in the world of Islamic Securities.
